Fashion And Design Partner Up To Bring Bright Spring Florals On A Grand Scale. Check Out Some New Fabrics That Have Just Bloomed

BY ROSIE D'ARGENZIO

Calder, from Jane Churchill, is a fun way to add lots of color with a fresh and contemporary feel. Found at Cowtan & Tout, www.cowtan.com

Looking like many floral prints flouncing down the runways is Sanderson's Persian Poppy in pink/teal. Found at Keith McCoy & Associates, www.sanderson-uk.com
