What's new in the showrooms—fabrics, furnishings, and fabulous finds

1 Jim Thompson's Marco Polo fabric line—which includes La Pivoine, a linen whose printed peonies fan across an impressive two-foot repeat—is suffused with motifs taken from the Asian art collection of the company's founder. Call 800-262-0336. 2 The Baobab table, an ode to that tangled tree, was hatched by designer Jiun Ho after a trip to South Africa and Botswana. The walnut base and top come in 20 finishes; the oval version shown is 54" l. x 40" w. x 30" h. Call Dennis Miller Associates, 212-684-0070; jiunho.com. 3 The Wendell Castle home-furnishings collection illustrates the American craftsman's spirited sense of style. Case in point: the Habileur chest of drawers, which is available in 12 colorful lacquers, five exotic veneers, and custom-specified finishes. Visit wendellcastlecollection.com. 4 Elegant proportions make the Cascade chair by Gérard an heirloom of the future. Shown here in walnut and obsidienne leather, it also comes in mahogany or oak, various finishes, and nine additional leathers or c.o.m. Call Dessin Fournir, 785-434-2777; dessinfournir.com. 5 A mineral that was a favorite of Piero Fornasetti, Malachite is also the name of a Cole & Son wallpaper, available in five colorways, that is based on the Italian artist-designer's works. Call Lee Jofa, 800-453-3563; leejofa.com. 6 Lorin Marsh's Barbell glass tables are made by hand in Murano, Italy.
