- 1} A tastemaker in every respect, Kelly Wearstler's collection for Groundworks is no exception. From the top to the bottom, Bengal Bazaar, Sand Stripe, Confetti, Twine, and Flair. www.leejofa.com
- 2} Thoughtfully formed by hand from recycled salago and mulberry tree fibers Lori Weitzner's Eden wallpaper is an elegant and bold work of art. www.weitznerlimited.com
- 3} Grounded in an organic pattern, yet unexpected in a black and gray colorway, Delaware, by Romo, has a pleasant contrast that speaks volumes in small and large spaces alike. www.romo.com
- 4} Inspired by a painting by her grandmother, Ultra Marine, by Carolyn Ray, pays tribute to the designer's roots as an artist, as each piece of fabric is hand painted and produced in her East Coast studio. www.carolynray.com
