

PLUS

- Garden Design Secrets
- NKBA Award-Winning Bath
- Chic Bedroom Makeover

INTERIOR DESIGN REPORT

More Insider Buzz

Sheryll Jackman, ASID

Owner, Seaside Home

IT'S ALL ABOUT:

- Organic, natural, transitional
- Metal woven into fabrics
- Splashes of gold, silver, champagne on accessories and furniture
- Crystal, lacquer, petrified woods
- Ethnic and antique elements play into handmade and natural style
- Sherrill Furniture upholstered pieces with dressmaker details like double-inset pleats
- Stickley's new Coronado (light finish) and Finger Lakes (cherry finish) collections
- French Heritage's revamped line
- How the whole world luxury market wants high-end furniture made in America

Elizabeth Barkett, ASID

Owner Ross Thiele & Son

FALL CONTINUES WITH:

- Color on one bold wall
- Fabric pillow accents
- A strong piece of art and an interesting area rug
- Reclaimed wood for furniture and flooring
- Mirrored furniture and Mercury glass
- Wallpaper in traditional stripes or texture like grass cloth
- Ikat prints and ethnic fabrics
- Mixing antiques with contemporary interiors
- Mid-century Modern simplicity

Thomas Lavin

Owner Thomas Lavin showroom

INFLUENCE FROM LATE 1960S, EARLY '70S FURNISHINGS:

- Vintage pieces have moved back into production
- Lighting designers are revisiting cut glass, crystal and bulky chains
- Honeycomb patterns are back
- Fabric companies still are the true pioneers
- This fall's adventurous weaves and artistic prints
- Stone and veined marble, this time as inspiration for textiles.
- Who would think!

Brooke Giannetti

Designer, co-owner Giannetti Home

WHAT CLIENTS WANT:

- Traditional elements mixed with modern design
- Neutral linen for a sofa or chair, with colorful pillows
- A lot of apricot and blue-grey accents in linens and velvets as well as vintage textiles
- French club chairs and our industrial lights made from vintage wine barrel ties. ♦

Velvety washed-silk rugs in the latest colors by Rosemary Hallgarten, through your designer at Thomas Lavin, Pacific Design Center.

Courten woven leather side chair by Gregorius Pineo. Through your designer at Kneeder-Fauchère.