NEW TO ORANGE COUNTY

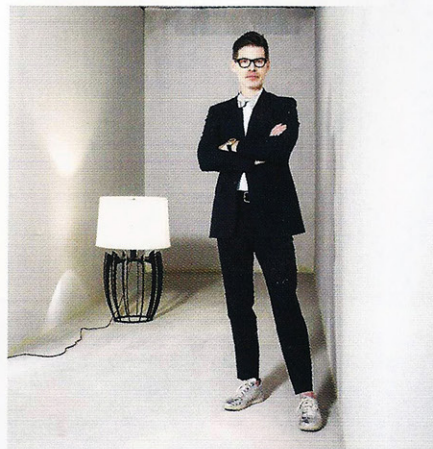

Thomas Lavin Comes to Laguna Design Center and Soli Architectural Surfaces to Irvine

THOMAS LAVIN SHOWROOM IS PROUD and excited to announce 2 expansions in Southern California due to popular demand. Thomas Lavin and the Blake House showroom, celebrating 25 years in the Laguna Design Center, have merged to become Thomas Lavin at Blake House. The new combined showroom opened this summer in a 12,000-square-foot space in the LDC that will feature a courtyard display of outdoor furniture and fabrics illustrative of the Southern California style of indoor-outdoor living. A launch party is planned for Tuesday, Sept. 16.

In Los Angeles, this fall Thomas Lavin will add 3,000 square feet for a "boutique" featuring Christian Liaigre furniture and lighting. Liaigre, the renowned French designer of furniture and interiors, continues to create a remarkable collection of exquisitely crafted furniture, lighting, textiles and leather with his wife, Deborah Comte-Liaigre, from their studio in Paris.

Visit the Thomas Lavin showroom's updated, tablet-friendly website for further updates at www.thomaslavin.com.

SOLI ARCHITECTURAL SURFACES brings its innovative assortment of surfaces to Orange County.

Expanding from their flagship showroom in Los Angeles, the new Irvine showroom located at 9920 Research Drive, Irvine, CA 92618 boasts over 6,000 square feet of surfaces on display. SOLI's signature collection includes decorative tile and mosaics, natural stone tile, cobblestones and pavers, reclaimed architectural elements and more.

The gallery atmosphere invites architects, landscape architects and designers to meet with their clients in a design setting. Complementary samples of every product are available to take home.

SOLI Architectural Surfaces was established in 1997 to service the demands of the architecture and design community. Since its inception, the SOLI project portfolio has grown to include international retail outlets, hotels, casinos, restaurants and luxury residences.
