

Santa Barbara Magazine

H O M E & G A R D E N

Trends, Textiles, and Interiors for 2016

Style & Substance

Ruthie Sommers is rocking the design world and living for the weekends

Clockwise from top left: GREGORY PARKINSON sorts his linens (from $100/ set); RAOUL TEXTILES' indigo dip dye outdoor fabric ($320/10-foot panel); LIBERTY LONDON's Shepherdly Flowers in Joy ($32/meter); HEIDI MERRICK's Yukata pillow ($275).

Pattern PLAY

Hot textiles for spring that we happen to be mad for

Made in the SHADE

A new design staple to recently hit State Street: THE SHADE STORE. True to its name, the showroom is all about drapes, blinds, blackout shades, and every custom window treatment you'd imagine. But what we're most excited about is the colorful patterns and designer collaborations, including exclusive ones with Dwell Studio and The Novogratz. Plus, the store's recent partnership with Kravet gives access to more designer fabrics from the likes of Jonathan Adler and Diane von Furstenberg. 635 State St., Santa Barbara, 805-319-7945. J.B.K.

THESHADESTORE.COM